Background & Introduction

Water is an indispensable resource in human life. Nevertheless, less than 1% of all water resources on Earth are fresh water that is suitable for direct use. With rapid global population growth, economic development, climate change and pollution, the scarce fresh water resources are in imminent crisis. Water conservation is therefore imperative!

To encourage Hong Kong citizens to cherish water in daily life, the Water Supplies Department (WSD) has officially launched the “Let’s Save 10L Water” Campaign since early 2014 to call for the public to actively reduce their daily domestic water consumption by 10 litres or more and establish water saving habits. With the great support and participation from the public, the Campaign has succeeded in raising social awareness on cherishing water resources. To sustain the Campaign spirit and further raise public awareness on water conservation, WSD now launches the “Let’s Save 10L Water 2.0” Campaign (<https://www.waterconservation.gov.hk/en/save-water/index.html>) to promote the culture of cherishing water to all walks of life by organising a series of activities.

The average daily domestic fresh water consumption per capita in Hong Kong is about 130 litres and most are consumed for bathing. Apart from taking a quicker shower to reduce water consumption, shower with a water-efficient showerhead is a more effective and eco-friendly way to reduce water consumption. “Innovative Water Efficient Showerhead Design Competition” (the “Competition”) is one of the significant programmes of the Campaign, which is also the first eco-friendly showerhead design competition in Hong Kong. WSD strives to gather innovative showerhead designs through the Competition to inspire the contestants and the public with new ideas on water conservation and promote the use of water saving devices. Using water efficient devices allows one to enjoy shower and make an effort in environmental protection by saving water at the same time. Water saving is just that easy!

1

Objectives

-  To promote water saving devices and raise public awareness on water efficient showerheads
-  To publicise the importance of water conservation
-  To enhance product design of eco-friendly water saving devices
-  To encourage young generations to unleash their creativity and develop their ambitions in design

Organiser & Co-organiser

The competition is organised by the Water Supplies Department of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (hereinafter referred to as “Organiser”) and co-organised by the Federation of Hong Kong Industries (hereinafter referred to as “Co-organiser”).

Design Concept and Theme

Eco-friendly

Bathing accounts for a large proportion of domestic water consumption. Integrating eco-friendly elements and features in designing showerheads which can reduce water and energy consumption concurrently is the popular trend nowadays.

Innovative

Being “Innovative” means to challenge and break through the traditional concept by diversifying and enhancing both appearances and functions of showerheads.
